By providing your mobile phone number and creating an account, you agree to receive SMS messages from GLEX Limited for account verification, authentication, and security purposes only.

SMS messages are used exclusively to:

- verify your phone number;
- complete login or two-factor authentication (2FA);
- protect your account from unauthorized access.

We do not send SMS messages for marketing, advertising, promotional offers, or newsletters.

Message frequency depends on your account activity.

Standard message and data rates may apply depending on your mobile carrier.

If you have any questions regarding SMS communications, please contact us at support@glexglobal.com.
